THE BLESSINGS OF THE NEW LIFE

INTRODUCTION Paul has just finished telling his readers how important it is to find victory over the old sin nature. Although its reigning power has been defeated in the life of a believer, all Christians still live in the flesh and as a consequence share that body with the old nature. Although there is the struggle for control of this body by the old nature and the new nature, God has given the new nature teachings on how to walk in the pathway of victory. Now in chapter 8, Paul shows how that way can be a practical reality in our daily experience. Thus we see...

I. The Dawning of a New Law – (8:1-4)

- A) There is Release - “No More Condemnation for Sin”
- B) There is Liberation - “No More Control by Sin”
- C) There is Deliverance - “No More Continuance in Sin”

II. The Descent of a New Lord – (8:5-13)

- A) A New Director – “The Spirit Controls the Mind”
- B) A New Desire – “The Spirit Controls the Motives”
- C) A New Direction – “The Spirit Controls the Members”

III. The Debut of a New Life – (8:14-39)

- A) There is Sonship – “The Believer is fully Adopted”
- B) There is Security – “The Believer is Preserved for Glory”

CONCLUSION: Paul’s concluding words in chapter eight (v.38-39), give the believer in Christ the most comforting promise of God to be found in the Bible – nothing in heaven or earth can or will ever separate us from God’s love and presence. We are right now, forever God’s child and will spend eternity with Him to experience the fullness of this new life in Christ. Meanwhile, down here on earth, it’s up to us to begin the process of allowing God’s new law, His new Lord and life to rule and reign in our hearts. Have you submitted and surrendered to the Lord’s rightful rule in your life? If not, do so today and enter the further and fruit-filled blessings of this New Life.

TEXT FOR MESSAGE
The New International Version

Romans 8:1-4

“ Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, 2 because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death. 3 For what the law was powerless to do in that it was weakened by the sinful nature, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful man to be a sin offering. And so he condemned sin in sinful man, 4 in order that the righteous requirements of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the sinful nature but according to the Spirit.”

Romans 8:5-13

“Those who live according to the sinful nature have their minds set on what that nature desires; but those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their minds set on what the Spirit desires. 6 The mind of sinful man is death, but the mind controlled by the Spirit is life and peace; 7 the sinful mind is hostile to God. It does not submit to God’s law, nor can it do so. 8 Those controlled by the sinful nature cannot please God. 9 You, however, are controlled not by the sinful nature but by the Spirit, if the Spirit of God lives in you. And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Christ. 10 But if Christ is in you, your body is dead because of sin, yet your spirit is alive because of righteousness. 11 And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit, who lives in you. 12 Therefore, brothers, we have an obligation—but it is not to the sinful nature, to live according to it. 13 For if you live according to the sinful nature, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the misdeeds of the body, you will live,”

Romans 8:14-39

“ because those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. 15 For you did not receive a spirit that makes you a slave again to fear, but you received the Spirit of sonship. And by him we cry, “Abba, Father.” 16 The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God’s children. 17 Now if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.

Future Glory

18 I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. 19 The creation waits in eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed. 20 For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope 21 that the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

22 We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. 23 Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. 24 For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what he already has? 25 But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently. 26 In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express. 27 And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God’s will. 28 And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. 29 For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. 30 And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified. 31 What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? 32 He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? 33 Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. 34 Who is he that condemns? Christ Jesus, who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. 35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? 36 As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.” 37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, 39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.”
